Vince Mezzetti to be honored at Winslow Denim and Diamonds Gala

WARWICK – Vince Mezzetti, founder and CEO of Myles Wealth Management in Florida, N.Y., will be the honoree at the 41st Winslow Therapeutic Center's Denim and Diamonds Gala.

The popular annual fund raiser in support of Winslow's programs devoted to the special needs population of Orange and surrounding counties will be held at the Falkirk Estate and Country Club in Central Valley on Friday evening, Sept. 25.

'A major force' for Winslow

One of the highlights of the evening will be the presentation of an award to Mezzetti, who was nominated for his continued support of the riders at Winslow Therapeutic Center.

"As a long-standing board member of Winslow Therapeutic Riding Center," said Winslow's Executive Director Sue Ferro, "Vince Mezzetti has used his wisdom, strengths and time to help Winslow flourish. Vince has brought joy into the lives of the 594 riders attending Winslow's unique programs.

"And always ready to help, he provided office space when Winslow needed it," she added. "Vince was also a major force in our Capital Campaign as he helped build an outstanding therapeutic riding facility. At Winslow, he continues to this day to provide energy, ideation and counsel. His focus on family values, culture, heritage and traditions guides Winslow's continued growth."

'My biggest accomplishment'

As CEO of Myles Wealth Management, Mezzetti has long been committed to helping families, businesses and not-for-profits grow and prosper.

After he and his wife, Mary, emigrated from Ireland, first to Canada and then to the United States, Mezzetti, educated as an architect, continued following that career even after moving to Warwick in 1971.

However, in 1976 he left that business to become a financial planner, a business he has been in to this day.

In 2000, he purchased the building at 59 North Main St. in the Village of Florida, which serves as the home of Myles Wealth Management.

Mezzetti attends The Church of St. Stephen, the First Martyr, where he serves as a Eucharistic minister.

"My biggest accomplishment," he said, "are my 12 grandchildren."

Tickets and sponsorships are available for the Denim and Diamonds Gala by contacting Winslow Therapeutic Riding at 986-6686.
